PASTOR'S CORNER

In keeping with the diocesan theme for this year, THE CALL TO HOLINESS, the bishop is proposing a particular saint for different months. In September, we honour the Canadian martyrs (normally the feast day is September 26th). Of the 8 martyrs, this year we remember in particular St. Gabriel Lalement, born 400 years ago in 1610. Below is a short biography:

St. Gabriel Lalement, a Parisian, became a Jesuit at age 19. His ambition was to labour in the Missions and he asked to be sent to the Canadian Missions. He was "one of the most feeble and delicate in health." A scholar, he was professor of Philosophy, and dean of studies in French Colleges. He arrived in Huronia in September 1648 where in words of Scriptures, he was destined to complete a long time in a short space. In Huronia seven months, just beginning to speak the Native tongue, he was sent to assist Brebeuf in February 1649. He was captured with Brebeuf and tortured for seventeen hours at the stake. Gabriel Lalement died on March 17 on his 39th year, at St. Ignace, six miles from Ste. Marie.

St. Gabriel Lalement and your Holy Canadian Martyrs, pray for us! Fr. Tim

LITURGY CORNER:

SOME WAYS To HELP FAMILIES MAKE PRAYER A PRIORITY:

1. Communicate with God whenever you climb into the car. Many families spend a whole lot of their time in the family vehicle. As you buckle up, say a quick prayer that you will be aware of God's presence in your day

2. PLACE A PRAYER JAR IN THE KITCHEN

Keep a jar in the kitchen in which each family member, each day, places a note listing a "special intention" that others in the family can pray for. Before each family member goes to bed, he or she pulls a note from the jar and prays for that need.

3. PRAY WHEN PEOPLE UPSET YOU

If you want a sure-fire way to pray more each day, make a habit of saying a short prayer whenever someone irritates you. A quick "Help me, God" is sufficient. You'll never run out of opportunities!

REMEMBER THE RUSSELL GOOD NEIGHBOURS FOOD

BANK! Non-perishable food & toiletry items can be placed in the bushel baskets located in the Hall.
