PASTOR'S CORNER

As some of you may have heard, the pastoral appointments for the Archdiocese were announced on Thursday. Ever since the bishop named me Vocations Director in 2008, he has been looking for ways to make me more available for vocations ministry. For this reason, he has appointed me chaplain at Carleton and pastor of a small nearby parish, St. Margaret Mary's, effective August 1st. (It is true that my renewed appointment here was supposed to be for 3 years, but sometimes the needs of the diocesan Church take priority!). Fr. Paul Nwaeze, a very fine priest and a friend of mine, has been appointed pastor of Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal.

Of course I believe and trust this is God's will, but at a human level, it is extremely difficult for me to say goodbye to the town and people I have come to love. I would have gladly stayed in this parish for as long as St. John Vianney stayed in his first parish – the rest of my life!

At the same time, I understand how this move serves the needs of the Church in promoting vocations to the priesthood.

I am also consoled by the thought that we all remain united by our common mission. If we look at our lives from the perspective of comfort, all change is painful, or at best, inconvenient. Instead, all of us must remember our mission! Our parish theme for the past year has been to encounter Christ and share Him with others – to live the New Evangelization. We have begun to do so in part through our faith studies in our small Christian communities.

As you continue your mission, I continue mine. Let us persevere in praying for one another as people of the same diocese, and as brothers and sisters of the same Body, the Church. I will have more to share with you in the coming weeks.

In Christ, Fr. Tim

DIOCESAN FEAST DAY:

All are invited to the celebration on June 9, 7:30 p.m. at Notre Dame Cathedral, to celebrate our 125th anniversary as an Archdiocese. During the celebration a formal acknowledgement of the contributions of several diocesan members will be made. Each parish will present a rose (provided by the diocese) to make a large bouquet in front of the altar – a symbol of the life of our Church. All parishes are asked to assign 2 parishioners to represent your parish, gathering in the Cathedral Hall by 7:00 p.m. Names to be forwarded by June 1 to Annmarie Brown (613-738-5025, x 217; abrown@ArchOttawa.ca). The procession with parish banners will not take place.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL WHO ARE RECEIVING THE SACRAMENTS OF FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

May you and your families always stay close to Jesus.

DIOCESE NEWS

Number Three: Why Do We Use Latin for Mass?

In the West, the Mother Tongue of the Church has been Latin since the Church was established in Rome. After the Second Vatican Council, the Church gave permission for the Mass to be translated from the official Latin version into other languages with the approval of the Vatican. Pope John Paul II first announced the New Missal eleven years ago. The English-speaking world is the first language group to translate the New Missal from the official, original Latin text. The Catholic Church continues to produce her official documents in Latin and in this way every language group has a common 'reference text' to use to make sure we are saying and meaning the same things. At the last World Youth Day in Australia, it was a powerful moment when youths from so many different cultures could pray the Our Father together in one voice in Latin. It was a powerful sign of our unity of faith in public prayer in the Mass. Latin will not replace English as the language in which we celebrate Mass on Sunday, but understanding its importance as the 'core' or original language of the Roman Catholic Church is helpful and important.
