PASTOR'S CORNER

Before leaving the parish and the people I have known and loved these past 7 years, I have so much I would like to share with you, which I hope to do in the coming weeks in my homilies. My transfer reminds me that even diocesan priests are missionaries who go where we are sent. The whole Church is missionary by its very nature, as John Paul II reminds us in his encyclical on the Church's missionary mandate.

He adds: "the evangelizing activity of the Christian community . . . is the clearest sign of a mature faith. A radical conversion in thinking is required in order to become missionary . . . The Lord is always calling us to come out of ourselves and to share with others the goods we possess, starting with the most precious gift of all - our faith.

The effectiveness of the Church's organizations, movements, parishes and apostolic works must be measured in the light of this missionary imperative. Only by becoming missionary will the Christian community be able to overcome its internal divisions and tensions, and rediscover its unity and its strength of faith" (The Mission of Christ the Redeemer, #49).

In Christ, Fr. Tim
