PASTOR'S CORNER

As we come to the end of the Liturgical year, our readings today remind us of the end of the world and Christ's Second Coming.

Be Prepared

But since no one knows the day or the hour except the Father, what do we do? Panic or go into frenzy? None of these. All we need to do is to pay attention; be prepared! Yes, the day or the hour we do not know but one thing we know for certain is that, time is running out! That is why Jesus insists strongly that we have to be prepared to give an account of the way we lived our lives. This involves among other things realizing that God is present with and in us, in our sufferings, in our sorrows, in our joys.

Strong in Faith

This conviction forms the basis of our faith: that God, no matter what, never gives up on us. Our Holy Father, Pope Benedict XVI puts it this way, "...God never tires of looking for us, He is faithful to man whom He created and redeemed, He remains close to our lives, because He loves us. This is a certainty that must accompany us every day, even if certain widespread mentalities make it more difficult for the Church and the Christian to communicate the joy of the Gospel to every creature and to lead all to an encounter with Jesus, the only Saviour of the world,"

Thank You

My special thanks to all those who donated to our Catholic Women's league "sock it to the missions" program this fall, over 300 pairs of socks and other winter wears were collected and have been donated to the Shepherds of Good Hope. This is one of the many ways our parish family reaches out to our brothers and sisters in need. Many thanks for your generosity. May the good Lord continue to strength us as we witness to His love and compassion.

Peace to All!

Fr. Paul

Introduction to the Nicene Creed - Part Six. It is helpful to keep in mind that every clause in the Nicene Creed is there to clarify the Church's belief or to refute a specific erroneous line of thought. "GOD FROM GOD, LIGHT FROM LIGHT, TRUE GOD FROM TRUE GOD, BEGOTTEN, NOT MADE, CONSUBSTANTIAL WITH THE FATHER," try to correct the false notion that Jesus is somehow different from the Father in terms of his 'God-ness.' At the time of the early Church when Greek philosophy provided many of the conceptual tools to talk about very abstract concepts, the idea of a hierarchy of being was very prominent. If Jesus is the Son of God, one erroneous line of thought went, he was therefore 'less' than his Father. The Creed tries to refute this line of thinking with these clauses to establish that Jesus is not less than the Father nor is he a creation of the Father, but rather His true Son. Sons and daughters are not 'less' than their parents!
