Pastor's Corner

When Jesus said, "follow me", he is inviting us to follow him to Calvary, to die with him! To die with him does not necessarily mean that we are going to be crucified as he was; rather, it is an invitation to carry with love the cross of daily living and suffering. "Walking by the side of Jesus", remarked Pope Benedict XVI, "calls for commitment and personal sacrifice." No doubt this is not an easy thing to do, but it is rewarding, it worth the effort.

The Example of Peter and Paul

Yesterday the Church honoured the apostles Peter and Paul - two classic examples of true discipleship. The two apostles are often regarded as founding pillars of the church. Both were terribly human and frail, but through cooperation with the God's grace, they came through to a worthy and heroic end. Similarly, if we cooperate with God's grace, we will no doubt do great things.

Pastoral Year End

As we come to the end of the pastoral year, I would like to thank our many volunteers and the various committees and ministry heads whose dedicated efforts made the dynamic life of our parish possible. Your gifts of time and talent are greatly appreciated. I especially thank the temporal affairs and pastoral councils, our Knights of Columbus, CWL and our Parish Mission Team for their invaluable contributions to the leadership of our parish.

As summer begins, I would like to wish everyone a safe and restful summer holidays and especially those who will be travelling, may the almighty and merciful God make your journey peaceful and prosperous!

May God bless us all!
Fr. Paul
