Pastor's Corner

This year, the solemnity of the Apostles Peter and Paul falls on a Sunday. Thanks be to God for the gift of these two heroes of our faith. On this feast day, the Church invites us to first of all, honour these two great giants, and most importantly, to reflect on our own vocation as apostles, as people called and sent, as were Peter and Paul, to preach the Good News. Both Peter and Paul were committed to the Lord. We, too, should strive to be committed to the Lord by responding generously to His will.

The Example of Peter and Paul

Peter and Paul are two classical examples of true discipleship. The two apostles are often regarded as founding pillars of the church. Both were terribly human and somewhat frail, but through their cooperation with God's grace, they attained a worthy and a heroic end. Similarly, if we cooperate with God's grace, we will no doubt do great things.

Pastoral Year End

As we come to the end of the pastoral year, I would like to thank our many volunteers and the various committees and leaders of the various ministries whose dedicated efforts made the dynamic life of our parish possible. Your gifts of time and talent are greatly appreciated. I especially thank the temporal affairs and pastoral councils, our Knights of Columbus, CWL and our parish mission team for their invaluable contributions to the leadership of our parish.

As summer begins, I would like to wish everyone a safe and restful summer and especially those who will be travelling, may the almighty and merciful God make your journey peaceful and enjoyable!

May God bless us all!

Fr. Paul

House Blessing

In keeping with the old Christian Tradition of house blessing, Fr. Paul will be available to visit your home to bless it. Please call the office to set a date and time.

Praying for the Sick

Considering the time it takes to read what is sometimes a long list of names during mass, starting from the month of July, we shall no longer read out the list of the names of the sick during the prayers of the faithful. The names of the sick shall, however, remain in our parish bulletin. Thank you for your understanding.

As of September requests for names to be included to the sick list in the bulletin will remain for four weeks only. Please contact the office when additional time is required.

The OLMM Catholic Women's League donates monies each year to the following schools for awards to students who demonstrate Christian Leadership. The recipients this year are:

Mother Teresa School: Lauren Patterson; Aidan Harps; Hailey Mackie

Ecole St Joseph: Allison LaPierre; Maverick Labrie

St Thomas Aquinas: Kaitlyn Ridge

"The Spiritual Library Committee has just completed an inventory of the collection which shows that over 70 items are missing and unaccounted for, including adult, youth and children's books, DVDs and CDs. They do not appear to have been signed out. Please check your homes for any items that you may have borrowed and have forgotten to return. Remember other parishioners may want to read, watch or see what you have been enjoying. Thank you for your co-operation."

Catholic Teacher Available for Tutoring

One of our parishioners, an Ontario-certified teacher in good standing with the Ontario College of Teachers, is available for tutoring this summer. She will come to your home or meet your child at the library. Tutoring is available in English or French. She has a Master's degree in Education and specialist certification in Special Education. She will teach all subjects at elementary level and many subjects at high-school level. Spaces are limited and priority will be given to those children who are struggling at school and to those who have special needs. For more information, please e-mail terryannkeogh@gmail.com or text or telephone 613 869 7306 after 5 pm.
