INTENTIONS OF THE HOLY FATHER FOR March: That those involved in scientific research may serve the well-being of the whole human person. That the unique contribution of women to the life of the church may be recognized always.

Pastor's Corner

Today, Jesus enters Jerusalem as Messiah and King and desires to enter into our lives as the shepherd of our souls leading us to the father.

He Humbled Himself

Jesus' earthly life was characterized by His humility and total obedience to the Father! In today's second reading, St. Paul sang beautifully the praises of Jesus. Paul invites us to have the same attitude as Christ. As Christians, we are called to imitate Jesus. His humility and lowliness as a model of conduct should also characterize our lives in our parish family and our entire community.

Greater Love

Jesus entered Jerusalem to suffer and to die. His passion and death is a powerful sign of God's immense love for each one of us. This is what we are celebrating today and the whole of this week. God loves us and He wants us to be saved and be happy. It is for this reason that He gave up His only begotten son to die on the cross; with Him, He has given us all things. Today and indeed during Holy Week, we contemplate the obedience of a man destined to be rejected, to suffer the death of a criminal all because of the love He has for us. I hope you can arrange your family schedule to make yourselves available to all of this week's liturgies.

Welcome, Michael Dopp

As some of you may know Ottawa will be hosting the New Evangelization Summit this spring, April 24-25. The goal of this summit, which will feature as many as eight outstanding Catholic speakers and apologetics across North America, is "to set hearts on fire; to inspire Catholics to bring the good news into the world." Michael Dopp, the founder of the Mission of the Redeemer Ministries, will be speaking to us after all masses this weekend on what to expect from the summit.

Have a fruitful Holy Week!

Fr. Paul
