INTENTIONS OF THE HOLY FATHER FOR DECEMBER:

That all may experience the mercy of God, who never tires of forgiving. That families, especially those who suffer, may find in the birth of Jesus a sign of certain hope.

Please note: Tuesday, Dec. 8th, 7:00pm adoration and mass is cancelled but there will be mass at 9:00am for the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, due to the launch of the year of mercy at Notre Dame Cathedral Basilica on Tues., Dec. 8, 7:30 p.m. All are encouraged to attend.

Pastor's Corner

Today, we begin a New Liturgical Year with the Holy Season of Advent. The word Advent is from the Latin word Adventus, meaning "coming". It is also a time of preparation. The theme that runs through this season is: The Lord is coming! During Advent, we recall the prophecies of the old and how they were fulfilled in the fullness of time with the coming in flesh of Jesus, the Son of God. During this season, we are also reminded of His second coming, when He, the Just Judge will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead. Thus, this time we reflect on the two-fold coming of Jesus Christ: His first coming as man and His second coming at the end of time.

You can make this advent the best ever if you want to. And you can do this by entering into the spirit of the season by allowing the Baby Jesus to be born anew in your heart. As part of our preparation for Christmas, we are organizing the Jesse Tree event here on Monday, Dec. 7 at 7:30 pm and the Christmas carolling and pot-luck on Sunday, Dec. 13 at 5:00 pm by our EDGers. I invite you to mark your calendars and consider joining us.

I would like to congratulate our CWL for a successful bake sale last weekend. Events such as this don't just happen. It usually involves a lot of work. No doubt Jane Munro and her executive must have worked very hard to put it together. Thanks to all the ladies, especially those who worked behind the scenes. Maranatha, come, Lord Jesus!

Fr. Paul

OLMM Jesse Tree Are you looking for a way to get the most out of the season of Advent? Do you want to prepare yourself for receiving true joy at Christmas? Then consider joining us for an evening of reflection and song based on the tradition of the Jesse Tree. Through stories about the people, prophesies, and events leading up to the birth of Jesus, you will be able to connect the Advent season with the faithfulness of God across four thousand years of history. Everyone is invited to attend this special event on Monday, December 7th from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the church.
