Pastor's Corner

"Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive."

Welcome to the month of November, a month dedicated to remembering our departed ones. On November 1, All Saints Day, we honored all the Saints, all those brothers, sisters, fathers, mothers, uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces and friends of ours who have attained the beatific vision. They are those who, according to St. John, have washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb! They are all those who endured suffering and persecution for the sake of the gospel. They are those who lived out the gospel values; who lived out the beatitudes! They are those who closely followed Jesus, the Lamb who was slain, and obeyed His will. They are those who overcome the trials, tribulations and the challenges of bearing the name "Christian." They give us hope. They give us encouragement. They pray for us. They watch over us. We are all called to be like them; to be where they are, in our Father's house. We honor these men and women like you and me, who through all the ordinary chores and pleasures of life tried to let Christ and His gospel of love radiate in their lives. May we never cease to seek their intercession and protection!

On November 2, All Souls Day, we offered special prayers for the dead, our brothers and sisters, especially the holy souls in purgatory. May we never cease to pray for them during this month! They depend so much on our prayers. As has been our tradition, the book of remembrance will be placed at the back of the church and will be brought up with the gifts throughout the month of November. Please remember to enter the names of family and friends who have died in the last twelve months. Eternal rest grant unto them O lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May they rest in peace!
Amen!

Have a good week!

Fr. Paul

INTENTIONS OF THE HOLY FATHER FOR NOVEMBER:

That the countries which take in a great number of displaced persons and refugees may find support for their efforts which show solidarity.

That within parishes, priests and lay people may collaborate in service to the community without giving in to the temptation of discouragement.

OLMM Mercy in Action

November - Visit the Sick

Pray: Lord, give me the strength to be aware of the sick and their needs. Help me make time to visit them and give me an openness to be present with them, so that You may be present through me. Make me mindful of the gift of healing that I can bring, the healing that comes with compassion and tenderness. Amen.

Take Action:

- Volunteer at a hospital or a local nursing home.
- Visit and pray with those who are sick. If you don't know what to pray, try saying the Chaplet of Divine Mercy.
- Bring flowers, magazines, newspapers, library books or audio books when visiting someone in the hospital.
- Start a meal train for a family with a sick loved one.
- Volunteer to bring food to the homes of the elderly through a program like Meals On Wheels.
- Offer to buy and wrap Christmas gifts for someone who is sick and cannot go to the store themselves.
- Join OLMM's Prayer Shawl Ministry.
- Become a member of OLMM's Pastoral Care Team.

The STA Poverty Exposure Mission Team is seeking your help! Seven students from St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic High School are staying at an orphanage in the Dominican Republic during March break, helping out with special needs children, construction projects, gardening, English classes, food preparation, etc...

We are having a silent auction and Trivia Night on Dec 3 in order to help us achieve our goal of getting there and making a difference. We are looking for monetary donations, or alternatively, gift items for our silent auction (like gift cards or gift certificates, giftware, crafts, services, babysitting, general labour, etc.)—something people would flock to and bid lots of money for at the auction! Scotiabank Russell has agreed to match our fundraising efforts for this event (up to $5,000), so your donation will have double the effect! To donate items please contact Chris Vonesch at STA, 613-445-0810 x7, or to RSVP for the event call Connie Johnston at 613-445-3587. Thank you!
