New Assignment – Thank You

Since this will be the only bulletin for the month of July and the last one before I leave you to take up my new assignment as the Parochial Administrator of Holy Redeemer parish in Kanata effective August 1st, I would like to use this opportunity to express my deepest appreciation and gratitude first of all to our most High God for His graces which indeed have led me this far and to our archbishop for giving me the privilege to serve among you as pastor these past six years. It was indeed an honour for me to serve you! I just want to thank each and every one of you, my wonderful parishioners, from the bottom of my heart, for your love, support, friendship and above all your prayers. Without your incredible support and words of encouragement and affirmation, I don't think my stay with you would be this memorable. I felt your deep love for me, both from the young and the old, from the very first day and it continued until this very day. Thank you! Yours is indeed a super amazing, loving, caring, warm, wonderful and above all faith-filled parish. No doubt, Fr. Robert, your new pastor will love it here and that a glorious time awaits him! I will miss you. Please keep me in your prayers as I take up my new assignment for God to take control. Wishing everyone a happy, safe and relaxing summer.

God is good...All the time!

Fr. Paul
