Gospel Reflection

The fourth Sunday of Easter is also called Good Shepherd Sunday. In each of the three lectionary cycles, the Gospel is taken from the tenth chapter of the Gospel of John. This chapter of John's Gospel follows Jesus' healing of the man born blind and the rejection of this miracle by Jewish leaders who question Jesus' authority to heal. Jesus responds to this challenge to His authority by calling Himself the Good Shepherd. He is criticizing the Pharisees and other Jewish leaders. Already, the Pharisees and other Jewish leaders are so angered that they attempt to stone and arrest Jesus (see John 10:31 and 10:39). This controversy with the religious leaders continues until Jesus' death.

Set in a moment of tension and conflict in John's Gospel, today's Gospel reading is Jesus' answer to the question, "Are you the Messiah?" Jesus responds by saying, in essence, "If you have to ask, then you are not one of My sheep." Then Jesus asserts His unity with the Father. At the conclusion of these words, John reports that the Jews intend to stone Jesus for blasphemy, but He escapes arrest.

We may be less familiar with the metaphors of sheep and shepherd than those to whom Jesus spoke. The image of Jesus as Good Shepherd and the community of followers as His sheep has endured over the centuries as a primary image in our faith tradition. Its power to describe the relationship between Jesus and His followers transcends direct experience with sheep. The image speaks to us about the protection, security, and care that shepherds represent for their sheep.

Today's Gospel speaks powerfully about the familiarity and intimacy between Jesus and His disciples, expressed as recognizing and knowing another's voice. Today's Gospel also speaks to the relationship between Jesus and the Father. In the Gospel of John, Jesus identifies so closely with the Father that He tells us that they are one—not just close, but actually one. To know Jesus is to know the Father. Jesus doesn't just bring us closer to the Father, Jesus puts us directly into contact with God the Father, removing all distance between us. Our relationship with Jesus is an invitation to share in the life of God.

Blessings,

Have a great week!

On May 22, 23, 24 and 25 we will be producing a parish pictorial directory in order to help us acquaint ourselves with one another and strengthen the bond of our faith community. Every photographed family will receive a free directory and a free 8X10 color portrait. All photography and viewing is done in one convenient appointment at our church. Please see our parish rep in the foyer to sign up or answer any other questions you may have. You are all members of our church family, our directory is not complete without you. Next weekend is the last weekend for signing up..

Diocesan Feast Day Mass: The Diocesan Feast, celebrated this year with Mass at Notre Dame Cathedral on Thurs., June 6, 7:30 p.m. will have a youth character. Please note the change of date from Jun. 13. More details will follow.

CARE FOR CREATION IPBES Report on Biodiversity: This report states that nature is declining at unprecedented rates with one million species now at risk of extinction (<https://www.ipbes.net>). In Laudato Si, Pope Francis states, "Because of us, thousands of species will no longer give glory to God by their very existence, nor convey their message to us. We have no such right". The issue is urgent. Resource: Living Out Laudato Si: A Commentary and Practical Resource for Canadian Catholics (ccc.ca/Living_Out_Laudato_Si_En). Info: 613-738-5025 x251; jdorner@archottawa.ca.

Happy Mothers Day!

Heavenly Father, on this Mother's Day, we thank You for our mothers through whom Your gift of life begins and through whom we are nurtured into great human beings. We lift up all mothers to Your love and care. We pray for them, for their needs of strength and support to continue to nurture a family of love, in honor and love for You, our God. Amen
