Readings: Acts 2:1-11/1Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13/Jn 20:19-23

“As the Father has sent me, so I send you.”

Through Baptism and Confirmation, we have received the gift of the Holy Spirit and are called, like the disciples in today’s Gospel, to go forth and share the Good News with the world. The same Spirit that strengthened the apostles at Pentecost continues to guide and strengthen us in our daily lives.

Pray to the Holy Spirit for the gifts needed to live as faithful witnesses of Jesus Christ: awe, piety, wisdom, understanding, knowledge, counsel, and courage. These gifts help us grow in holiness, make good decisions, and reflect Christ’s love to others. Do not be afraid to live and share your faith.

Through simple acts of kindness, compassion, and invitation, we can help others come to know Jesus Christ and experience the peace, hope, and joy He offers to all.

Intentions of the Holy Father for May

That everyone might have food

Let us pray that everyone, from large producers to small consumers, be committed to avoid wasting food, and to ensure that everyone has access to quality food.

THANKYOU! THANKYOU! THANKYOU!

With sincere gratitude and appreciation, we thank Richard James for his dedicated service as Chair of the Parish Pastoral Council. Your leadership, wisdom, and commitment to our parish community have been deeply valued and greatly appreciated throughout your time in this role.

We also extend our heartfelt thanks to Bruce Murphy for his faithful service as Chair of the Finance Council. Your stewardship, generosity, and careful guidance have been an important contribution to the life and mission of our parish. As you both step down from your positions, we thank you for the many ways you have shared your time, talents, and dedication in service to our parish family. May God bless you abundantly for all you have done.
