Readings: Ex 34:4b-6, 8-9/2Cor 13:11-13/Jn 3:16-18

The readings for the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity invite us to reflect on the mystery and love of God — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. In today’s Gospel, we are reminded of God’s great mercy: He sent His Son into the world not to condemn the world, but so that the world might be saved through Him.

As we reflect on this gift of divine love, we are called to open our hearts to God’s mercy and seek His forgiveness in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. In turn, we are challenged to extend that same mercy and forgiveness to those who have hurt us. Today, let us give glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit for the abundant love poured into our lives, and may we share that love generously with our neighbors.

Intentions of the Holy Father for June

For the values of sports

Let us pray that sports be an instrument of peace, encounter, and dialogue among cultures and nations, and that they promote values such as respect, solidarity, and personal growth.

Prayer to the Sacred Heart

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, living and quickening source of eternal life, infinite treasure of the Divinity, and burning furnace of divine love,
You are my refuge and my sanctuary.
O my amiable Savior, consume my heart with that burning fire with which Your Heart is ever inflamed;
pour down on my soul those graces which flow from Your love; and let my heart be so united with Yours that our wills may be one, and that mine may be entirely conformed to Yours.
May Your divine will be equally the standard and rule of all my desires and of all my actions. Amen.
